

Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute and the University of Saskatchewan
Present

PRAIRIES REGIONAL CONFERENCE

“Engaging India - Engaging Canada : Interdisciplinary perspectives”

Venue: Private Dining Room, Marquis Hall Events Centre, University of Saskatchewan Main Campus, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

The Conference aims to highlight the enriching diversity of interdisciplinary perspectives from scholars in Canada and India emphasizing energy and food security, gender equity, social justice, and Indigenous points of view.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Program DAY ONE (Thursday, October 20, 2022):

- 09.00-10.00: Inaugural session
- 10:00-10:30: SICI Session – A presentation on SICI Programs with Q/A
- 10.30-10.45: Refreshment break
- 10.45-12.15: Academic session One:
Energy and Environment
- 12.15-13:15: Lunch Break
- 13.15-14.45: Academic session Two:
Agriculture and Food Security
- 14.45-15.00: Refreshment break
- 15.00-16.30: Academic session Three:
Canada and India: Humanistic, Social, and Indigenous Dimensions
- 16.30-18.00: Free time

Shastri Indo-Canadian Institute and the University of Saskatchewan
Present

PRAIRIES REGIONAL CONFERENCE

“Engaging India - Engaging Canada : Interdisciplinary perspectives”

Venue: Private Dining Room, Marquis Hall Events Centre, University of Saskatchewan Main Campus, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

18.00-21.00	Reception; Dinner; Cultural Program
18:00-18:30	Reception
18:30-19:30	Dinner
19:30-20:00	Cultural Program

Program DAY TWO (Friday, October 21, 2022):

08.30-10.00:	Academic session Four One Health: Education, Social, and Cultural Explorations
10.00-10.15:	Refreshment break
10:15-11:45:	Concurrent Round Tables Round Table 1: “University of Saskatchewan in India.” Round Table 2: “SICI Prairies Consortium/Network.”
11:45-12:15:	Valedictory and closing remarks
12.15-13.30:	Lunch
13.30:	End of Program
