

SEED Process Document - USask Timelines 2020 competition

For Undergraduate SEED applicants applying to take courses during their exchange at the USask, a student exchange agreement is required.

For Graduate SEED applicants applying to conduct research at the USask, a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is desirable but not mandatory.

Undergraduate Student Applications:

a. Monday, January 27th 2020 at midnight CST - Nomination: The International Student and Study Abroad Centre (ISSAC) coordinates all undergraduate student applications. To nominate your students, complete the attached nomination form and email it to study.abroad@usask.ca.

b. Friday, February 14th 2020 at midnight CST

i. Online Registration: After receiving your nominations, the student will receive an email with the online Admissions application link.

The student will upload one of the following:

- English Proficiency document
 - o A signed letter from the Faculty of English in your institution or;
 - o A signed letter from your International Coordinator confirming level of English language skills or;
 - o Evidence of completion of the IELTS (minimum band score 6.5) or TOEFL (minimum paper-based score of 550/internet based score of 80)
- Official Academic Transcript Of Records
- English translation of transcript (if original is not in English)
- Optional: Photo

ii. Global Affairs scholarship application: All of the Global Affairs supporting documents must be submitted to study.abroad@usask.ca by the home institution's mobility coordinator. Applications submitted directly by students will not be considered. These documents must be sent to study.abroad@usask.ca on or before February 8th 2019 at midnight CST.

The supporting documents include:

- Proof of citizenship
- Proof of full-time enrolment (Template attached)
- Letter of intent from the candidate (Please ensure that this includes how your study or research in Canada will contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals and SEED program mandates)
- Letter of support from the home institution
- Privacy notice statement (attached)
- Global Affairs scholarship application form (attached)

More information here.

Undergraduate Students applying to the Global Affairs scholarship will be registered at the University of Saskatchewan as exchange students, therefore the terms outlined in our mobility agreement for exchange will apply to all Global Affairs applicants.

Applications submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

Graduate Student Applications

The International Office coordinates all graduate student applications. To start the process of submitting Graduate student applications please contact international.office@usask.ca with the subject heading “Global Affairs Scholarship”.

a. Deadline January 27th 2020 at midnight CST – Nomination: List of required documents:

- i. Applicant’s CV
- ii. Applicant’s statement of research interest: a letter in English from the applicant describing the nature of their research to be undertaken at the University of Saskatchewan.
- iii. Transcript from all past and present post-secondary institutions

b. February 14th 2020 at midnight CST – Global Affairs Scholarship Application:

- iii. All of the Global Affairs supporting documents must be sent to international.office@usask.ca by the student, please also cc your mobility coordinator at your home institution.

The supporting documents include:

- Proof of citizenship
- Proof of full-time enrolment (Template attached)
- Letter of intent from the candidate (Please ensure that this includes how your study or research in Canada will contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals and SEED program mandates)
- Letter of support from the home institution
- Letter of invitation from the Canadian supervisor
- Privacy notice statement (attached)
- Global Affairs Canada scholarship application form (attached)

c. February 26, 2020 at midnight CST – Supervisor and student matching must be complete with letter of invitation from USask host supervisor. If no match is made by this date, the student will not be eligible to apply for the Global Affairs Canada scholarship.

More information here.

Applications submitted after the deadline will not be considered.

University of Saskatchewan Areas of Expertise and World-Class Research Facilities.

Please note that all applications will be ranked based on student’s demonstration of motivation for mobility, academic fit to study/research at the U of S, partnership history with host institution, mutual benefits to home and host institution etc.

If you have any question please contact study.abroad@usask.ca (Undergraduate) or international.office@usask.ca (Graduate).