People Around the World (PAW) Conference

A two-day, online event | Feb. 2 & 3, 2021

$35 registration. $20 for students. Registration closes Feb. 1 at 12 pm.

Is it possible to tackle COVID-19 and leverage this moment of crisis to re-emerge stronger and united in our efforts to address the UN 2030 Agenda?

Join the University of Saskatchewan for an important event bringing together expert research, applied knowledge, and lived experiences to create the path forward for stronger, more resilient societies in the wake of COVID-19 and on the way to meeting the UN's Sustainable Development Goals \(SDGs\) by 2030.

In addition to showcasing a number of diverse international research projects, the PAW 2021 conference will feature special presentations from (and Q&A sessions with) our confirmed keynote speakers:

Professor Jeffrey D. Sachs — world-renowned economics professor, bestselling author, innovative educator, and global leader in sustainable development.

The Honourable Karina Gould — Government of Canada Minister of International Development

The Honourable Judge David Arnot — Chief Commissioner for the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission

Livia E. Castellanos — Saskatchewan Ministry of Advanced Education Executive Lead for International Education and Jurisdictional Initiatives

Dr. Phil De Luna (PhD) — National Research Council Program Director

The insights gained, perspectives shared, and collaborations inspired through PAW 2021 have the potential to leverage elements of the COVID-19 crisis and steer the world back on track.
